FINAL REJECTION

Status of the Claims

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Haddock et al. (5,999,538).

Claims 3, 4 and 21 are allowed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Haddock et al. (5,999,538).

Regarding claim 1:

Haddock teaches:

receiving, at the MAC layer, a packet (col. 1 lines 39-44 – in an Ethernet environment, packets are received by the MAC layer);

detecting for error while transmitting the received packet to a layer above (col. 6 lines 49-58); and upon detection of said error,

a) stopping said transmitting to said layer above (col. 6 lines 56-58); and

b) sending, to said layer above, a signal indicating the occurrence of error and a signal indicating an end of the packet (col. 6 lines 53-58 – jam signal).

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: Prior art was not found that explicitly teaches or fairly suggests preventing, regardless of size, the storage of a packet that is determined to have an error during receipt at the MAC layer as outlined in claim 21.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
